

CONFERENCE TOPIC -The Caribbean Story – The Role of Governmental Agencies in Drug Counterfeiting

PRESENTER BIO: Mr. Francis Burnett, Head of the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States/ Pharmaceutical Procurement Service (OECS/PPS)

Francis Burnett is the Head of the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States/ Pharmaceutical Procurement Service (OECS/PPS), which is responsible for supply chain management of medicines and related medical products for its nine member countries. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy from Canada, and diplomas in health education and business administration from the University of the West Indies.

In 2006, he was honored with the rare distinction of the highest award by the Caribbean Pharmacy Association for having a unique, transforming and enduring influence on the profession of pharmacy in the Caribbean. Francis Burnett is a recognised leader in managing medicine supply in the Caribbean, and was a member of the United Nations Observer Group to monitor food and medicine distribution in Iraq in the aftermath of the Gulf War in 1997. He is an avid researcher, and has published numerous articles in scientific journals on drug utilization reviews on chronic non-communicable diseases, such as, hypertension, diabetes, asthma, epilepsy, and mental diseases. In addition, he has served as a short-term consultant in medicine supply management to the Caribbean Community (CARICOM), Pan American health Organisation (PAHO), and USAID.