

Dr. Devendra Singh

MBBS, MRCOG (UK), CCT (UK)

Consultant in Obstetrics & Gynaecology

I am a Specialist Obstetrician & Gynaecologist with over 20 years' experience in the field. I have spent over 12 years in the United Kingdom where most of my training has taken place. I was a Consultant Ob/Gyn in Manchester which was the second largest maternity unit in the UK. I returned to Trinidad as a Lecturer with the University of the West Indies and served for the past 3 years. I am currently the Ag. Head of Department in Obstetrics & Gynaecology at the Sangre Grande Hospital.

Education :

Presentation College, San Fernando – awarded National Scholarship to pursue medicine at UWI

UWI – Class Representative of 1996

2001-2013 – Postgraduate training in the UK across 10 hospitals

2007 – Postgraduate Membership in the Royal college of Obstetrics & Gynaecology (MRCOG)

2011 – Certificate of Completion of Training (CCT) in Ob/Gyn

The CCT is the highest European specialist qualification in Ob/Gyn and my areas of interest include high-risk pregnancy, minimal access surgery, urogynaecology and medical education.

2017 – Postgraduate Certificate in Leadership for Healthcare (Lok Jack School of Business)

Achievements :

I have participated in national committees with a remit of reducing maternal and perinatal mortality in Trinidad and Tobago as well as developing training curriculums for junior doctors.

I am published in both local and international journals

I have presented both locally, regionally and internationally on topics such as cervical and ovarian cancers, endometriosis, polycystic ovarian syndrome and post-partum haemorrhage.

I played squash at a national level whilst in University and enjoy Archery, Bonsai and Cooking.
